

You and the Law

When an American political party turns away from the Constitution of the United States of America and weaponize the departments of the United States government, we must ask ourselves what is the agenda of that party and the outcome it desires.

There is no doubt that we are living in dangerous times. Our government is run by socialists intent on changing our nation's rules, regulations and laws to further the socialist/communist agenda. Biden's political and social actions, and inactions, outweigh the false promises that come out of his mouth and those of his minions. The speeches and words spoken by Biden, his cabinet and so-called spokespersons, are carefully crafted to mislead the American public.

While our nation faces threats from abroad, our greatest threats come from those, within our nation, who willingly subvert our Constitution, rights, and laws. This subversion is covertly carried out in such a way that the public essentially does not realize its impact until it is too late.

Before having discourse on the above, let's first take a look at our, yours and mine) Constitution. Please keep in mind that, recent and past, discussions to rewrite our Constitution have been thrust upon us by leftists, socialists, communists, and democrats., all with the agenda of changing how the country is run by our government.

The Constitution of the United States is THE governing document for our republic/nation. It starts out with the words, "We the People. . ." These three words simply mean that we, you and I, are the shareholders or stakeholders of our nation. It means that we have the right and obligation to see that our government is run effectively, efficiently, and in the best interests of the shareholders. Putting it bluntly, federal employees, judges, political appointees, Representatives, Senators, the President and the Vice President of the United States are public servants. These servants of the people would like you to think otherwise. To have us believe that they are in control. And they are in control as long as we allow them to be.

However, even against public opinion/action, it may not be so easy to fire these servants for misconduct or other reasons. Case in point was when Californians attempted to recall Governor Gavin Newsome. While the first attempt failed, Californians have mounted a second recall program. Meanwhile Newsome has continued his unremitting socialist agenda for the state.

Biden, his administration and some members of Congress continue pushing socialist reforms to replace our democratic way of life and government. While Biden claims that he will not raise taxes on the middle and lower income classes, Senate analysis finds that 172 million taxpayers would bear the burden of Biden's increased corporate taxes. (<https://www.finance.senate.gov/ranking-members-news/analysis-biden-tax-hikes-hit-middle-class>). In essence, what Biden does on one hand, is essentially contradicted on the other hand.

A socialist government can only exist if it is able to control the population, business and commerce. Such control is largely supported by intimidation, fear, and excessive repercussions for opposing the controls implemented.

Currently there are several lawsuits against Donald Trump. Biden, et al, and the media regularly demonize Trump but rarely talk about the implications of the outcomes should Trump fail to win those lawsuits.

We need to understand that if Trump fails to win the lawsuits, each of the lawsuits will set precedence for future lawsuits that local, state and federal governments may bring against individuals and corporations. Keep in mind that New York corporations were very weary as they closely watched the New York case against Trump. Should Trump's corporate assets be seized, that means the State of New York can then seize any corporation's assets.

In the current "Stormy Daniels" fraud case, the judge issued a gag order against only Trump and his legal team but not against any other persons involved in the case. When Trump defied the order, the judge further stated that Trump and team would not have access to the jury, implying that the defendant could not be involved in jury selection. Both actions by Judge Merchan. By issuing a gag order only to the defendant and threatening to block access to jury selection, the judge has violated the US Constitution. These two actions are prevalent in socialist, communist and dictatorship countries, and violates our nations "due process" laws and procedures.

The Georgia case of election interference against Trump is an attempt to squash a person's right to free speech. Free speech is not tolerated in socialist countries and is often met with severe punishments.

While, on the surface, the cases against Trump appear political in that the Democrats are trying to prevent him from becoming president again. The major problem with Trump losing the cases against him is that precedence would be established for future civil and criminal cases in which the defendant's rights would be suspended and at the same time be advantageous to the prosecutors and government. Trump and others have stated that we have a two-tiered justice system. Blacks have said the same thing regarding how justice is meted out between Blacks and Whites.

During the late 1950s, the American Communist Party established 45 goals where the socialist and the progressive movements are used to bridge democracy and communism. Sixty+ years later, almost all of the communist and socialist goals have been achieved. <https://archive.org/details/45-declared-goals>

In the past three and a half years, we have experienced a strong socialist movement to take over our government, freedoms, and the American way of life. But this movement did not start with Biden becoming president. It started long ago with the establishment of the Social Democratic Party of America in 1898, and continued to today under various other names. Spearheading the socialist party movement was the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU).

On the surface, ACLU activities appeared to support freedom and democracy. However its alliance with activists, the far left, and liberal organizations coordinated by the US Communist Party, has been undermining the Judeo-Christians morals and ethics that our nation was built on.

Today, many Americans are starting to wake up to the subversion of our nation by socialists and far left instigators. Most of us, for the first time, realize how bad this became when COVID hit our nation and parents became aware of what their children were being taught in school.

Since COVID, we have also realized how our executive, legislative, and judicial systems have been weaponized to contain and control Americans and the nation.

With the realization of the impact that socialism has had on us, we still have not realized the full impact of what has happened to our country. We have NOT realized that WE are to be blamed for allowing the socialist movement to garner such a foothold in our government and daily lives.

In a nutshell we have been more concerned with gratifying our desires and wants, and have not been concerned with the way our lives and the country are going. We complain about government and society, and yet we do little to change it. Why? Is it because we don't have enough time? Is it because we believe that what we do will not make a difference? What is your reason for not getting involved?

Whatever the reason, it is only an excuse for abrogating your responsibilities as an American citizen. On the surface, by not being involved, you are showing a lack of care for yourself, your family, your community, and your country. If you are honest with yourself, that becomes a hard pill to swallow.

1 Timothy 5:8 directs us to provide for our own and especially our own household. Similarly Islam and other religions direct their believers in the same way. Regardless of religion, the commandment is to take care of your community and your family, not just for the present but for the future as well. Failure to follow this commandment will result in a soulless, merciless, and brutal government that will CONTROL every aspect of our lives and those of your children. All you need to do is look at modern the modern histories of Nazi Germany, Soviet Russia, and that of Cuba and Venezuela.

In our laziness, greed, and indifference, we have forsaken the primary purpose for the Constitution for the United States of America:

“We the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, . . .”

The preamble of our Constitution in many ways is a summary of the Constitution itself. To better understand it, let’s explore the preamble in more detail.

We the People	That is you and me, all US citizens
establish justice	This means to establish a judicial system that is applied to ALL American citizens equally, that all citizens are entitled to receive the same level of treatment from the government.
insure domestic tranquility	To make sure that we are a nation at peace with itself and not divided in thought and purpose provide for the common defense	The key word is “common.” This means that we have the responsibility to defend ourselves and nation from both external and internal threats to our freedoms, government, and nation.
promote the general welfare	This addresses the welfare of the general public. Special interest groups and non-citizens are excluded from receiving special treatment.
secure the blessings of liberty	This refers to the preservation of the rights and freedom of each citizen. These blessings are reinforced in the “Bill of Rights.”

While Article 1 of the Constitution lays out the structure of the government, Article 2 addresses the powers and duties of the officers within each branch of government. Article 2 is also important to us because it requires that each officer/member of each branch to "be bound by oath or affirmation, to support (and defend) this Constitution." (Article 4, Clause 3)..

Article II, Section 1, Clause 8 (presidential oath of office)

"I, ____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

Article VI, Clause 3 (oath applicable to ALL individuals, excluding the President, elected, appointed, or employed in the civil service or uniformed services)

"I, ____,do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God."

Judiciary Act of 1789 (oath of office for Federal judges)

"I, ____, do solemnly swear (or affirm), that I will administer justice without respect to persons, and do equal right to the poor and to the rich, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me, according to the best of my abilities and understanding, agreeably to the Constitution, and laws of the United States. So help me God."

Both oaths require the individual to protect and defend the Constitution. This also includes the laws of the United States. The oaths, though not stated, are not limited to only the time in office, but rather for a lifetime.

We need to keep in mind that Biden has taken both oaths. The first was when he became president. The second he took many times while serving in the Delaware legislature and as a US senator. As a democrat for his adult life, Biden was already a liberal.

When Biden became president, almost immediately, he violated his many oaths. Similarly his executive staff and cabinet have also violated their oaths by not upholding the Constitution and laws of the United States. In other words, their actions have been treasonous and should be treated as such

The 14th Amendment, Section 3 addresses the violation of one's oath, as does U.S. Code, Title 18, Part I, Chapter 115, § 2381 - 2384 (2018), and 18 U.S.C. 1918 which provides penalties for violation of oath of office described in 5 U.S.C. 7311 which include: (1) removal from office and (2) confinement and/or a fine. These laws should be applied to Biden and his administration immediately. There is no doubt in many minds that Biden, et. al., have committed TEASON against the American citizen and our nation.

If the above fails to come about because government will not take the appropriate action, then We the People, must turn to our Declaration of Independence of the United States of America.

". . .That Whenever Any Form Of Government Becomes Destructive Of These Ends, It Is The Right Of The People To Alter Or To Abolish It, And To Institute New Government. . ."
